

To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Beaver county.

THE PETITION of Louis Ferdinand Weinmann a native of Germany respectfully sheweth: That he declared on oath before the Prothy of the Court of Common Pleas of Beaver Co. Pa. on the 5 day of Nov. 1856 that it was bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to any prince, potentate, state or sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the Emperor of Russia of whom he was at that time a Subject; that your petitioner has resided within the United States upwards of five years, and in the state of Pennsylvania one year, both periods immediately preceding this his application to become a citizen of the United States; and that he has ever borne any hereditary title, or been of any of the orders of nobility in his own or any other country. He therefore prays that, on his making the proof and taking the oath prescribed by law, he may be admitted a citizen of the United States of America. And he will ever pray, &c.

Louis F. Weinmann

Louis Vollmar a citizen of the United States, being duly sworn to law, saith that he knows and is well acquainted with Louis F. Weinmann petitioner; that to his knowledge he has resided in the United States five years, and in the state of Pennsylvania one year, both periods immediately preceding his application to become a citizen; that the said period of five years, he has behaved as a person of good moral character, attached to the constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the
